

OSPAR marine protected areas, Oct. 2013

This dataset represents the Network of Marine Protected Areas within OSPAR (Convention for the Protection of the marine Environment of the North-East Atlantic). MPAs are understood as areas for which protective, conservation, restorative or precautionary measures have been instituted for the purpose of protecting and conserving species, habitats, ecosystems or ecological processes of the marine environment.

Statement	Lineage provided with the dataset. ----- One of the tools that can be used to ensure the sustainable use and protection and conservation of marine biological diversity and its ecosystems is the implementation of Marine Protected Areas (MPAs). Within OSPAR, MPAs are understood as areas for which protective, conservation, restorative or precautionary measures have been instituted for the purpose of protecting and conserving species, habitats, ecosystems or ecological processes of the marine environment. The aims of the OSPAR network of MPAs are: * to protect, conserve and restore species, habitats and ecological processes which have been adversely affected by human activities; * to prevent degradation of, and damage to, species, habitats and ecological processes, following the precautionary principle; * to protect and conserve areas that best represent the range of species, habitats and ecological processes in the maritime area. Fuller details of the sites that Contracting Parties have reported to OSPAR are held in the OSPAR MPA database (http://www.ospar.org/html_documents/ospar/html/ospar_mpa-db_populated_2009-06-01.zip). Reporting of MPAs: MPAs selected by Contracting Parties as components of the OSPAR network can be reported using the OSPAR nomination database (Latest version: July 2008). Completed versions of the database should be sent to the OSPAR Secretariat and to the lead country, Germany (Mr Tim Packeiser - tim.packeiser@bfn-vilm.de). Contracting Parties should also complete the implementation reporting format for Recommendation 2003/3 when they submit reports of selected MPAs or develop management plans or management measures for sites within the network. It is recommended that any proposals for MPAs in areas outside national jurisdiction should be submitted in the first instance in paper format using the following nomination proforma. All Areas are calculated in "Europe Albers Equal Area Conic"-Projection
